

Theology on Tap 2011

The Perfect Brew of Faith and Fun!

Theology on Tap (TOT) is a 4-week, outdoor speaker and conversation series for young adults in their 20s and 30s, married or single. TOT is designed to provide a welcoming and fun environment for young adults to connect with each other and engage in discussions with leaders on social, spiritual, and service-related topics pertinent to our faith. Saint Clement has one of the largest TOT programs in the Archdiocese. Last year, over 200 people participated in each session. All events will be at Saint Clement and, weather permitting, on the plaza in front of the church. We begin at 7:00pm with registration, food and drink. The program starts at 7:30pm.

Pre-Register Online!
Spend less time in line and more time socializing. Pre-register for TOT at www.stclementchurch.org/tot.

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

FR. MANUEL DORANTES

A Hand Out or a Hand In? Responding to Poverty in our Midst
Discover the biblical roots of social justice and Catholic Social Teaching and see how it informs us in our daily lives. The teaching emphasizes relationships with those we serve, not simply giving a hand out or merely volunteering time. Spend an evening discovering the practical applications of social justice.
Fr. Manuel Dorantes, STL is the Associate Pastor at Saint Clement. As a deacon, Fr. Manny served as an Associate Administrator of Catholic Charities.

SCOTT MCLARTY

5 Questions (and Answers) Catholics are Frequently Asked About Their Beliefs
Where is that in the bible? What is all that stuff about Mary? Why confess to a priest? Every Catholic gets questions like these constantly. See how the answers to all of these questions actually point to the same thing: life with God.
Scott McLarty teaches theology at St. Ignatius College Prep, is an adjunct professor in the Department of Catholic Studies at DePaul University, and is an instructor at the Archdiocese's Chicago Catholic Scripture School.

TERRI HEMMERT

Where We Live: Contemporary Music and Dialogue on the Different Places We Live Our Spiritual Lives
We live in the city and suburbs. We live in relationships. We live in solitude, in our imaginations. We live with God. Contemporary music addresses these realities and how we relate to the different places and stages of our lives. We will cover artists from Arcade Fire to The Edwin Hawkins Singers. From Jay-Z to The Beatles. We will listen to songs, discuss the lyrics, and share how these songs reach us.
Terri Hemmert works at Chicago's WXRT radio station. She teaches many topics including the History of Rock and Soul at Columbia College and other Chicagoland locations. She also volunteered for ten years with the AIDS Pastoral Care Network.

TODD WILLIAMSON

Targeting the New Translation: The Launch of the 3rd Roman Missal
Beginning the first Sunday of Advent this year, November 27, 2011, some of the words we pray and sing at Mass will be different. This session will explore how the Third Edition of the Roman Missal was developed. We will then examine specific texts of the English translation and consider how this new translation can affect real change in both the liturgical life of the parish community and in the world.
Todd Williamson, a Saint Clement parishioner, is the director of the Office for Divine Worship with the Archdiocese of Chicago. He is an author and presenter in the areas of liturgy and sacraments, and has ministered in the Archdiocese teaching religion and theology.
